Discussion points (1)

- Have you perceived any changes in your recent interactions with national policymakers that could be due to the changing political circumstances?
- How do the announced EU Commission's policy priorities compare to those of your national government?
- Have you already adapted or are you planning to adapt your advocacy strategy vis-a-vis your government based on the changing political circumstances? If so, how?

Discussion points (2)

- What are your views on engaging with far-right politicians?
- What should be our advocacy strategy and tactics at the EU and national level?
- How can the RREUSE secretariat and members best support our respective advocacy efforts in the changing political landscape?

Thank you and keep in touch
